Student focused planning at WCP includes goal setting and progress monitoring, strategies for life, work, and/or school transitions, and student participation. Student Development includes assessments, academic skills, life, social and emotional skills, employment and occupational skills, student supports, and instructional context. Family Engagement refers to family involvement in communication and goal setting, family empowerment, and family preparation for future steps. Interagency Collaboration includes a collaborative approach with related providers, internship sites, service-learning providers, and community organizations in support of a student. Program Structures involve WCP characteristics and guidelines, strategic planning, policies and procedures, resource development, school climate, and program evaluation.

Source: Taxonomy For Transition Programming 2.0 (Western Michigan University, 2016)